The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, MAY 21st, 1906.

THOSE who have acquired an opinion of the Kaiser—an opinion which can scarcely be said to be "formed"—from the less responsible British newspapers and the persuasions of the rarely charitable cari-caturists, will be startled by the telegraphic information published to-day, in which we are told that the COLONIAL UNDER-

SECRETARY has hailed His Imperial Majesty WILHELM II. as "a faithful servant of peace". It is amazing how powerful is the influence of caricature; and equally astonishing how little we realise on what flimsy bases many of our harshest impressions rest. To pause and inquire on what grounds the GERMAN Emperor should be regarded by so many as a pugnacious "War Lord", whose distinguishing feature is a "mild face", might give trouble to some people to furnish a more satisfactory answer than the one at which we have hinted. It is rather a pity that it was not a politician for whom the public entertain "greater respect, who should have taken the present opportunity to try to awaken the world to a sense of error and injustice.

Still, it so happens that Mr. WILSON

CHURCHILL is not alone in holding a high opinion of the German monarch. In the Atlantic Monthly, Mr. A. MAURICE LOW, remarking that "it is the penalty genius pays to mediocrity to be misunderstood", attempts with considerable ability and effect to dissipate misconceptions. Perhaps Punch never made a more popular hit than with its famous cartoon, "Dropping the Pilot". Many of its successes have doubtless been due to its knack of hitting upon the seamy obvious; and in that cartoon, commemorating the dismissal of Bismarck, it perpetuated an impression of egoism and masterfulness as the motives of the Emperor's action. The Atlantic Monthly article takes a less flippant view, and says "The Emperor was sagacious enough to know that if Bismarck remained in power he would again so manipulate affairs as to force Germany into war, precisely as he had made the first WILLIAM take the field against France". Then it goes on to make a statement that may well have inspired Mr. CHURCHILL's later utterances. "The Emperor, in spite of all that has been said to the contrary, is essentially a man of peace, and while he is not afraid to fight, he knows the cost of war, and that the nation victorious pays a price almost as heavy as the nation defeated". No one realises more than the Kaiser that the last thirty-five years have witnessed great changes in the German Zeitgeist. A writer in La Revue said a short time ago that the German desire for conquest is now a commercial one, and therefore entirely legitimate. The feudal world, which prior to 1870 dominated the land, has since been crushed by the young industrial bourgeoisie. The La Revue writer mentioned this to explain how democracy has been growing in Germany; we mention it to show that there is good reason for the Kaiser's love of peace.

Trade may follow the flag, but it follows at some distance behind. The press is an indispensable safeguard against grievances; but it has become painfully conspicuous as a manufacturer thereof. A good example is furnished by the Contemporary Review, which seems glad to stand sponsor for anything that Dr. E. J. DILLON cares to say.

Dr. DILLON is a journalist who has never loved Germany; but like the rest of his kindred who seem to take delight in mounting unnecessary Anglo-German bitternesses he is far from infallible. He has recently been guilty of a "howler" which must have amused those who watch the progress of events in China. In the following extract, he seems to present Germany to us as an aggressive power withdrawing from China with chagrin at its own failure:—

"This it was lately announced that the Germans were withdrawing their garrisons from China, at the very moment that they were conplotting their designs upon Morocco. That commencement marks the end of the chapter which began with the occupation of Kiaochow and is not destined to be continued. The task was beyond her power, and having failed, there was nothing for it but to abandon interests in the Far East which could only be defended by German arms or by the force of an alliance under German hegemony. Levee en Train.

And now the troops are being withdrawn, the dream is dispelled and a new course has to be taken."

That is more than a dream; it is a nightmare of stupidity. He does not understand that the German proposal to withdraw troops from China was a movement to essentially peace-loving even for some Englishmen out here, who regarded it as a distinctly preliminary step after peace and harmony.

The alleged abandonment of interests is not borne out by the continued progress of Kiaochow, under a policy of commercial conquest at which we have no right to grumble. When such misunderstandings are possible, the rest are easily understood.

It is to be hoped that as much attention will be paid to writers like the one previously quoted, who in the Atlantic Monthly reminds us that the Kaiser is Queen Victoria's grandson, and that he has "inherited the dominant mental characteristics" which made that lady one of the great figures of history. Mr. Low says,

"When the history of this period of the German Empire is written, it may be discovered that William the Second was a man who spoke for the future to bear. Then it may be understood that his influence was for peace and not for war; that a spoke with a purpose; that he heard the voice of humanity; that he was one of the positive forces of his time. The Holenzollerns have given to history a great emperor and a great king; and William the First has been called a great emperor. History may yet find that greater than the greatest of his race is the reigning sovereign; because while the claims of his ancestors are written in war, his title to greatness is the flower of peace."

Thursday, the 24th inst., will be observed as a Government holiday. Monday, June 4th, will also be observed as a holiday throughout the Government departments, except the Police Magistrates' department.

It is unofficially announced that H.E. Huang Kao, Chinese Minister to Italy, has been appointed by the Government to be the Chief Representative for the Chinese Postal Department at the Conference and that the son of Sir Robert Hart is to be the Vice-Representative.

The H.K.C.C. Tennis Tournament Committee have notified competitors left in the various events that all ties must be completed by Thursday, Victoria Day. The annual match between the Cricket Club and the Ladies Recreation Club will take place on Saturday, May 26th, after which the prizes will be distributed.

The Sinclair Peking correspondent telegraphs that when the Imperial decree appointing their Excellencies Tieh Luang and Tang Shao-yi over the I. M. Customs was published there was great consternation amongst the Representatives of the various Foreign Powers, whilst the British and Italian Representatives were the loudest in their protests against the new régime.

Mysterious placards have appeared all over Peking bearing four characters which cannot be read into any clear meaning, but contain some vague allusions to "West," "Soldiers," "Swords," "Water," and similar words in an apparently meaningless jumble. The Peking and Tientsin Times says, "Those of our readers who were here six years ago will recognise the old tactics."

The Shanghai police raided some gamblers (Spanish subjects) outside the Settlement. The Spanish Consul, with some wit, incorporated the following in his judgment:—"The court upon hearing the evidence and the defence of the accused finds them guilty of the charge, and taking into consideration that some forms of gambling which are prohibited according to Spanish law are publicly allowed in the Settlements during race week, and taking a lenient view of the case as a first offence, fines them jointly and severally to the sum $500."

SUPREME COURT.

Saturday, May 19th.

IN ADMIRALTY JURISDICTION.

BEFORE SIR FRANCIS PROBERT (Chief Justice) and HON. CAPTAIN L. A. W.
BARNESS-LAWRENCE (Nautical Assessor).

ANOTHER COLLISION CASE.

The case was continued in which Chan Pok-tai, owner of the junk "Lia Shing Lee", and the owners of her cargo, claimed damages from the s.s. "Hankow" for a collision which occurred between the vessels on November 15th.

Mr. M. W. Stale, instructed by Mr. E. J.
Grist (of Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist), appeared for the plaintiffs, and Mr. E. H. Sharp, K.C., instructed by Mr. H. J. Gudge (of Messrs.
Johnson, Stokes and Master), represented the defendants.

The evidence in support of the plaintiffs' claim having been heard, Mr. Sharp read the defendants' preliminary and counter claim (already published), after which evidence was called and the case further adjourned.

SOLDIERS' CLUB CRICKET CHALLENGE CUP.

The draw for this cup is as under:

(1) 2nd Royal West Kent Regiment v. Royal Artillery.

(2) Royal Engineers v. Army Staff.

The military cricket ground will be the disposal of the teams from today until June second, but if possible matches should not be played on Saturdays, that day being a Golf Club competition day. If, however, this is unavoidable arrangements will be made. The matches will be played on the "knockout system", the winners of one and two playing each other in the final. Teams are required to make their own arrangements about umpires and dates for matches, and when a date is fixed they should communicate with Lieut. Down, hon. secretary of the Garrison Recreation Club, so that arrangements may be made for the use of the ground.

THE ROYAL SANITARY INSTITUTE.

STUDYING BRICK MAKING.

The members of the Sanitary Institute had another of their pleasant and instructive excursions on Saturday afternoon. On this occasion the Brick and Tile Works at Deep Water Bay was their destination, the privilege to inspect the works being kindly given by Messrs. Sheehan, Jones & Co., while the Hon.

Mr. E. A. Hewitt placed the launch Dragon at their disposal. Arrived at Deep Water Bay, the party were met by Mr. W. Mitchell, the manager, and conducted over the works, the different processes of brick and pipe making being demonstrated. The visitor was enabled to realise the intelligence and knowledge which led to the adoption of that site for the works when he noted that practically all the materials required in brick-making are to be found at hand, there being no less than ten grades of clay obtained there. Prior to the students taking their departure the Hon. Dr. Clark expressed their appreciation of the service rendered by Mr. Mitchell. The following members and students attended:—Hon. Dr.
Francis Clark, Lieut. T. J. Clark, R.E., Messrs. H. E. Goldsmith, A. R. F. Raven, H.
E. Haggard, W. S. Bissell, P. T. Lambie, R.
Hemmings, A. B. Bone, S. B. Boyd, C. W.
Ward, J. A. Bullin, J. Cole, A. P. Sanz, W.
J. Livingston, A. W. Simmons, C. V. Brett, E.
Duncan, D. J. O'Halloran, P. W. Saffield, A.

The passengers have been taken off the ship.

[This message was delayed in transmission.
Messrs. Melchers and Co. received a cablegram on Saturday morning stating that the Roon was still fast on the rocks, but that the salvage steamer Hansa had left Nagasaki to assist in towing her off. The passengers had been safely landed, but the crew remained on board, and the chance of saving the steamer depended almost entirely on the weather.]

Saturday, May 19th.

BEFORE MR. F. A. HAZELAND (First Police Magistrate).

GAMBLERS.

Sergeant O'Sullivan prosecuted 17 natives for gambling at Hungnam. They were gambling with European cards, and a considerable sum of money was on the table when the police entered the premises, while some of the men had as much as $20 in their possession. The two keepers were fined $50 each and the remainder $3 each, all the fines being paid.

A FACTION FIGHT.

Eighteen men were fined $1 each and bound over in the sum of $100 each to keep the peace.
They were employed with about 200 others on some works at Kowloon for Messrs. Butterfield and Swire and some of them quarrelled about the donkey engine men using water. A free fight followed. Hatchets, saws and other articles were used by the disputants, and several were injured—two so seriously that they had to be removed to hospital before the police arrived and put an end to the fighting.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.

A Filipino was summoned by his wife for desertion, who declared she would not live with him again. When the magistrate counselled a settlement she became more conciliatory and said she would return to him if he would turn over a new leaf and bring home his money to her as a husband should. His Worship thought a priest might bring about a conciliation and the case was left with Chief Detective Hanson who himself succeeded in getting the couple to adjust their differences and they left his office promising to be good friends.

FIGHTING THE PLAQUE.

A student was charged with creating a disturbance near the Government Civil Hospital in Queen's Road West on Friday night.From the evidence it appeared that a number of Chinese were desirous of waging war against the plague bacilli which have been gaining ground of late. Their modus operandi was to ignite numerous packets of crackers in the side channels, apparently with the object of smoking the germs out, or of blowing them to another sphere of usefulness. The police intervened, as the noise was likely to disturb patients in the hospital. At this the Chinese crusaders grew obstrepous, and some of them began to stone the police. When a student, who is alleged to have started the affair, was arrested, the crowd rapidly dispersed.On appearing at the Police Court, his Worship held the defendant guilty, imposed a fine of $5 and cautioned him.

DUMPING A DEAD BODY.

Chan Yau, fisherman, was proceeded against at the instance of Inspector Gourlay for deposit-ing the dead body of his daughter in the harbour.The evidence showed that the corpse was attached to one end of a rope, the other end of which was made fast to the stern of the boat.
The defendant intended to sail out of the harbour, cut the rope and let the body drift.
After examination of the body, the doctor found that death was due to plague.His Worship imposed a fine of $50, the alternative being six weeks' imprisonment with hard labour.SHARE REPORT.Messrs. Erich Georg and Co., in their weekly
